1. The following Yugoslav diplomatic personnel en route to the Yugoslav Legation at Tehran, Iran, were in Cairo on 10 March 1949. They stayed at the Continental Hotel and conferred with officials of the Yugoslav Legation in Cairo.

Raichkovic (fmu), new Minister to Iran.
Yuvcevic, Vido, secretary to Raichkovic.
Mazen, Paul, receptionist and chauffeur.

2. Mazen holds Yugoslav passport No. 025287. According to informant, he was reported to have been in Tehran, Iran, prior to the outbreak of World War II, and until 1941 was a German agent among the Bakhtiari tribes in Southwest Iran. From 1942 to 1945 he was in the area of Iran under Soviet control. Informant states that in 1944 Mazen was involved in a big propaganda campaign aimed at the recruitment of Yugoslavs in Iran for service in the Soviet Army. He speaks fluent Russian.
